

Year 13 transition: English Language

If you are intending to study English Language and/or Linguistics at university, or even if you're just keen to continue with your interest, you might find these recommendations useful – enjoy!

Books

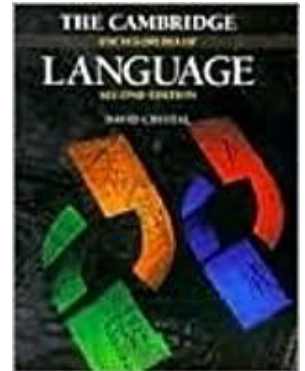

Anything by David Crystal!

Especially “Discover Grammar” to revise the basics...

...and “The Cambridge Encyclopaedia of the English Language”

Lakoff & Johnson “Metaphors we live by”

Bill Bryson “The Mother Tongue”

David Shariatmadari “Don't Believe A Word: The Surprising Truth About Language”

Matthew Saxton “Child Language: Acquisition and Development”

Podcasts

Dictionary.com's Word Of The Day Podcast

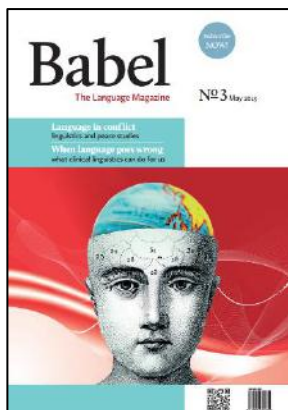

THE VOCAL FRIES POD: The podcast about linguistic discrimination

Lexicon Valley

Grammar Girl

A Way With Words

Lingthusiasm

Journals and magazines

Babel

Films about language

Arrival

Avatar

I Dream in Another Language

Nell

Still Alice

Online courses

Futurelearn

Open University OpenLearn

